Premium Stems for Florists & Event Planners

BIG HEADS. LONG STEMS. VIBRANT COLOUR. EXCEPTIONAL VASE LIFE.

Designed for Your Standards

Andina Flowers supplies premium-grade Colombian roses direct to florists, wedding designers, and event planners across Australia. Grown at 2,500 metres above sea level in the Andean highlands, our roses are selected for their oversized blooms, long sturdy stems, vibrant trending colours, and outstanding vase life — built to perform under the pressure of weddings, events, and high-end florist work.

"Every stem we supply is chosen with your designs in mind. From statement bridal bouquets to large-scale event installations, our premium roses are bred and grown to hold their shape, colour, and freshness from farm to finished arrangement."
